to common questions

● Who can attend Summer Sessions?

Students who attend other institutions, as well as Stony Brook students. You must, however, meet any course prerequisites. Also, if you wish to continue studying at Stony Brook after the summer, you must follow the appropriate application procedures.

● Where can I park and do I really need a parking permit?

Yes, you need a parking permit to avoid having your vehicle ticketed. Students with valid parking permits may park in one of the free commuter student lots or may pay to park in one of the campus parking garages. You can find out about parking, including any additional lots that may be open to summer students, during the first week of each session's classes at information booths at the main entrance on Nicolls Road and the commuter student parking lot adjacent to Stony Brook Road. See page 52 for more information.

● Is financial aid available for the summer?

Yes! If you attend Stony Brook during the academic year, check with Stony Brook's Financial Aid Office. If you attend another institution, check with its Financial Aid Office.

● Should I enroll for the Pass/No Credit Option in the summer?

If you are a visiting student, ask your home institution whether or not they will accept a "P" on your transcript. Stony Brook students should refer to the Pass/No Credit policy detailed in the Undergraduate Bulletin.

● How can I have a transcript sent to the school I attend during the academic year?

The Registrar will send an official transcript to your school upon receipt of your written request and a fee of $5.00, provided your account has been paid in full. Wait until your classes have finished so that your grade(s) will appear on the transcript.

● Where can I eat on campus in the summer?

Check at one of the information booths or in the Summer Sessions FAQ sheet to find out what dining facilities, other than the Student Activities Center, may be open in summer. The FAQ sheet will be available on May 29.

Please refer to the Table of Contents or Index of this catalog to locate more information about any of these questions.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

about undergraduate classes

● Course Meeting Days and Times

The specific meeting days and times for each course appear after the course title, along with the class number (which you will need in order to enroll in the class) and the session in which it is scheduled or the dates if it is on a special schedule. Contact the appropriate department about courses listed as TBA (to be arranged). Departmental phone numbers and locations are listed under the departmental headings on the following pages.

● Course Levels

The instructional level of each course is indicated by its number. Courses numbered 100-299 are at the freshman-sophomore level; those numbered 300-499 are at the junior-senior level. Course descriptions and enrollment instructions may be accessed from the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer.

● Research Courses and Internships

Summer independent research or internship courses may also be available. We do not list these in this catalog. Contact the appropriate academic department to inquire about research and internship opportunities. If the department is not listed in this catalog, call Campus Information at (631) 689-6000.

● Classroom Assignments

During the final week of enrollment, classroom assignments will be posted outside the Registrar's Office, in the lobby of the Administration Building, and outside the Summer Sessions Office, Room 102 in the Humanities Building. You may also access classroom assignments on the Web. Any changes in class meeting days or times are also posted in these locations and on the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer.

● Course Prerequisites and Permission

It is up to you to be certain you have met any and all prerequisites for a course before you enroll in it. An equivalent course-prerequisite from another college or university is usually acceptable. If in doubt, contact the sponsoring department at Stony Brook.

● Course Changes or Cancellations

This catalog was prepared prior to approval of the New York State Budget for the 2002 fiscal year. Some alterations in the courses listed, including cancellation of courses, may have to be made pending approval of the budget. We may also have to cancel any course that does not meet the required enrollment minimum, so please enroll as early as you can.

Look for Summer Sessions Updates, which list closed and canceled courses, as well as other important information. These are available in the Summer Sessions Office (Room 102, Humanities Building), the Registrar's Office (the lobby of the Administration Building), and as "Hot News" on the Summer Sessions Web site. It is a good idea to check the latest update before attending your first class, especially if you signed up early in the enrollment period.

● Enroll Early!

Waiting until the last moment to enroll is the best way we know to kill a class. If we don't have enough students by the final week of enrollment, we may have to cancel the course. Trying to sign up on the last day of registration won't resurrect it. We urge you to enroll as soon as you are eligible and know what you want to study this summer.

Are You Transferring to Stony Brook?

Often students who have applied to or been accepted at Stony Brook as transfer students want to get a head start in the summer. Even those who may still be thinking about applying to transfer to Stony Brook may want to attend. It's easy to have your credits evaluated so that you will know what you need to take. Just call our Transfer Office at (631) 632-7028 for an evening appointment or drop in during the day. Summer hours appear at the end of the Admission and Enrollment section of this catalog.

SOLAR SYSTEM: A NEW WAY TO ENROLL IN SUMMER CLASSES

Stony Brook University is introducing the SOLAR System (Student Online Access to Records), an integrated Web-based registration system for the 2002 Summer Sessions. Students can now view course descriptions and enroll in Summer Sessions classes, all on the Web. We think you will find the SOLAR SYSTEM to be a significant improvement over our previous registration and student records system. Look for details on the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer.

Where Do I Find Course Descriptions This Year?

All course descriptions, except descriptions for variable topics courses, are now accessible from the Summer Sessions Web site, along with instructions for enrolling in summer classes. The exception is topics courses—those courses that students may take more than once under different topics. Individual course descriptions for the topics courses scheduled this summer are included in this section of the catalog.

STONY BROOK WITH A METROPOLITAN FLAVOR

With Summer Courses Scheduled at Stony Brook Manhattan

In addition to the Summer Sessions courses scheduled at its suburban Stony Brook campus, several undergraduate courses are offered this summer at Stony Brook Manhattan, 401 Park Avenue South (at 28th Street). Like the classes scheduled on campus, the courses at Stony Brook Manhattan are open to both visiting and Stony Brook students. Many of the Manhattan classes will take advantage of the New York City environment to include trips to museums, literary sites, film festivals, and music venues.

The courses scheduled at Stony Brook's "Big Apple" location are identified with 🍏 [an apple]. For summer enrollment information and the complete Stony Brook Manhattan course schedule, visit the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer. To learn more about Stony Brook Manhattan, please visit its Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/nyc.

Starting College This Fall?

Why not pick up a freshman-level course in Term II this summer? Not only will you gain experience studying at the college level, you will get a head start on your freshman year. Summer classes also enable you to test the waters in a subject that you may be thinking of as a possible major. And you will meet students in your classes who attend other colleges and universities as well as Stony Brook.

Enroll Early!

Please enroll as soon as you can! You can ease the financial burden by using the Time Option Payment Plan (TOPP) to space out your tuition payments. Waiting until the last moment to enroll is the best way we know to kill a class. If we don't have enough students by the final week of enrollment, we might have to cancel a course. Trying to enroll on the day before classes begin won't guarantee the course, either.

Need A Course Description?

Visit the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer. Please note that summer laboratory hours differ from the times shown in the descriptions for some science courses because summer sessions are shorter than academic year semesters. Please remember to use the "Class Nbr." to enroll in classes this summer, not the six-digit combination of letters and numbers that precedes the course titles.

MATHEMATICS SEQUENCE EXPLANATION

Stony Brook offers two calculus sequences, a three-semester sequence (MAT 125, 126, 127) and a two-semester sequence (MAT 131, 132), for students who are able to move at a faster pace. In addition, Stony Brook offers two introductory calculus courses, MAT 122 Overview of Calculus with Applications and MAT 123 Introduction to Calculus.

MAT 122 provides an introduction to calculus for students who need only a one-semester introductory survey of the ideas of calculus. The course is especially appropriate for business and economics majors, as well as for the B.A. in psychology.

MAT 123 provides an introduction to calculus for students who plan to take additional calculus courses. Students who take MAT 123 may go on to take MAT 125 Calculus A or MAT 131 Calculus I.

Sociological thinking assumes that causes and explanations for social realities often lie in the social world. Therefore, this course explores sexuality from the sociological perspective. It focuses on the evolution of the meanings of sexuality, the relationships of sexuality to social and cultural ideology, and the construction of heterosexuality and its relationship to gender.

In the Area

You can visit the Stony Brook Grist Mill, circa 1751, where on most weekends, you can watch millers grinding grain exactly as they did 200 years ago. Or visit the Long Island Museum in old Stony Brook with its eclectic collections and clothing from the 19th century to today, miniature rooms, and paintings by William Sidney Mount, the 19th-century Long Island artist who became America's first famous "genre" painter. Just down the road is historic St. James, with its original Carpenter Gothic railroad station dating back to 1873, and the St. James General Store, a national landmark, operating since 1857.

INTENSIVE ENGLISH CENTER PROGRAMS

Courses and Activities in American Language and Culture

Stony Brook's Intensive English Center (IEC) offers a summer program of courses and activities in American language and culture for international students and visitors. Students in the IEC program attend English language and elective classes on a variety of topics. They are introduced to typical academic situations and join excursions to places of cultural and historical interest on Long Island and in New York City. IEC classes are taught by experienced instructors who have graduate degrees in Teaching English as a Second Language (TESOL) or equivalent professional training. International students who already have a 530 TOEFL score (CBT 197) may elect to attend IEC courses three days a week and take one undergraduate University credit course two days a week.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

about graduate classes

● Class Meeting Days and Time

The specific meeting days and times for each course appear after the course title, along with the class number (which you will need in order to enroll in the class) and the session in which it is scheduled or the dates if it is on a special schedule. Session I graduate courses meet only in the evening for the convenience of faculty who need to study in the summer. Contact the appropriate department about times for courses listed as TBA (to be arranged). Departmental phone numbers are listed under the departmental headings on the following pages. Course descriptions and enrollment instructions may be accessed on the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer.

● Graduate Course Indicators

Graduate courses that begin with prefixes other than CE are open to School of Professional Development (SPD) graduate students and non-Stony Brook graduate students with the permission of the academic department. Call Campus Information at (631) 689-6000 if a department's phone number is not listed in the following section. If you are interested in graduate independent research or reading courses during the summer, contact the appropriate department.

It is up to you to be certain you have met any and all prerequisites for a course before you enroll in it.

● Classroom Assignments

During the final week of enrollment, classroom assignments will be posted outside the Registrar's Office, in the second-floor lobby of the Administration Building, and outside the Summer Sessions Office, Room 102, Humanities Building. You may also access classroom assignments on the Web. Any changes in class meeting days or times are also posted in these locations and on the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer.

● Undergraduates Taking Graduate Courses

If you are a college junior or senior, you may enroll in graduate courses on a space-available basis in order to increase your knowledge in a particular area, or as part of a combined bachelor's/master's degree program. You must obtain written permission of the course instructor and the School of Professional Development (SPD) for courses beginning with the prefix CE or the Graduate School for all other graduate courses. Use form SUSB 3065 which, is available from the Graduate School or SPD.

On the last day of in-person enrollment, bring the form with all the necessary signatures to the Summer Sessions Office for final approval. If you are a visiting undergraduate student, you must also bring written permission to take a graduate course from the institution you attend during the academic year.

● Course Changes or Cancellations

This catalog was prepared prior to approval of the New York State Budget for the 2002 fiscal year. Some alterations in the courses listed, including cancellation of courses, may have to be made pending approval of the budget. We may also have to cancel any course that does not meet the required enrollment minimum, so please register as early as you can. Look for Summer Sessions Updates, which list closed and cancelled courses, along with other important information. These are available in the Summer Sessions Office (Room 102, Humanities Building), in the School of Professional Development Office (Room N-201, Social and Behavioral Sciences Building), the Registrar's Office (second-floor lobby of the Administration Building), and as the "Hot News" on the Summer Sessions Web site. It is a good idea to check the latest update before attending your first class, especially if you have signed up early in the enrollment period.

Need A Course Description?

Visit the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer. Please note that summer laboratories differ in length from the times shown in the descriptions for some science courses because summer sessions are shorter than academic year semesters. Please remember to use the "Class Nbr." to enroll in classes this summer, not the six-digit combination of letters and numbers that precedes the course titles.

Enroll Early!

Please enroll as soon as you can! You can ease the financial burden by using the Time Option Payment Plan (TOPP) to space out your tuition payments. Waiting until the last moment to enroll is the best way we know to kill a class. If we don't have enough students by the final week of enrollment, we might have to cancel a course. Trying to enroll on the day before classes begin won't guarantee the course, either.

NURSING COURSES

The School of Nursing offers a variety of summer graduate courses. Students may select departmental, core, and elective courses taught by visiting scholars and Stony Brook faculty. These courses include the most up-to-date, innovative practice and scholarship available to today's health care professionals. Many courses are of direct interest to registered nurses in advanced clinical practice who wish to advance their knowledge and skills. Students enrolled in other institutions and/or professionals in other health-related disciplines are welcome to enroll in elective courses.

Geoffrey Burleson
(Session I) 3 units
TuTh 6:00 p.m.—9:25 p.m.
This course examines the evolution of innovative and radical art movements in the 20th century and how music informed and illustrated each of them: Futurism, the Blue Rider, Dada, the Bauhaus, Happenings, Performance Art, Industrial Art, and "anti-art." Musical works of Stravinsky, Satie, and Scriabin through Laurie Anderson, Frank Zappa, and Trent Reznor are considered, with special attention given to the effects that their work has had on the larger movements, both singularly and collectively. The class also studies the techniques and forms of the musical selections themselves.

Don't Forget!

Please enroll early. If we don't have enough students signed up for a particular class, we sometimes have to cancel it. Please help us to keep classes on the schedule by enrolling as soon as you decide what you want to take. That also makes it less likely that you will be closed out of a very popular course.

Chautauqua 2002: Short Courses for College Teachers

Sponsored by the Center for Excellence and Innovation in Education, these short courses are open to college and university teachers. Twelve Chautauqua courses will take place in spring and early summer 2002. The courses run for three to five days and meet at Stony Brook's suburban and Manhattan campuses, as well as in several other states; Costa Rica; and Beijing, China. For an application, contact:

Center for Excellence and Innovation in Education
Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY 11794-4335
Telephone: (631) 632-7696 • Fax: (631) 632-7968

Need A Course Description?

Visit the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer. Please note that summer laboratories differ in length from the times shown in the descriptions for some science courses because summer sessions are shorter than academic year semesters. Please remember to use the "Class Nbr." to enroll in classes this summer, not the six-digit combination of letters and numbers that precedes the course titles.

*The late enrollment, add/drop, and withdrawal deadlines are shown on the Summer Academic Calendar, inside back cover. All charges are estimated as of December 2001 and are subject to change without notice.

The college, student activity, and comprehensive fees are mandatory for all Summer Sessions students. The student activity fee is used to help fund recreational and social activities for Summer Sessions students, as well as to support the ambulance corps and campus radio and TV stations.

The comprehensive fee funds the Student Health Service, as well as the transportation and technological costs of the campus. Services provided by the Student Health Service are outlined in the Student Services and Resources section of this catalog. The transportation portion of this fee supports the campus bus service, which is free to all students, as well as the maintenance of roads, parking lots, and the Motorist Assistance Program. The technological portion of this fee funds the operation of campus computer sites and e-mail accounts that are available to all students, including visiting summer students.

The vehicle registration fee is required for all vehicles parked on campus.

You may request a refund of the student activity fee on the basis of financial need, employment, internship/clinical rotation, child care, or commuting by submitting a Student Activity Fee Refund Request Form to: Student Polity Association, 202 Student Activities Center, Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY 11794-2800; phone (631) 632-6460.

If you are a non-immigrant international student, you are required to pay a mandatory health insurance fee prior to enrolling for summer classes. However, if you can provide proof that you already have comparable health insurance you may request a waiver. Contact the Student Health Insurance Office at (631) 632-6054.

• PAYMENT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Summer Sessions students must pay for their summer classes within seven (7) days of enrolling, unless they are using the Time Option Payment Plan (TOPP). It is important for you to remember that if you change your mind about attending a class, you must drop the course yourself within the deadlines indicated in the box on the next page. Otherwise, you will be held liable for the applicable tuition and fees, plus additional charges.

Sometimes students think that not attending a class or not paying tuition and fees will automatically cancel their enrollment. Not so! Non-attendance or non-payment of tuition and fees does not relieve you of your financial obligation or entitle you to a refund. Until your account has been settled, you cannot enroll in classes or receive a transcript, diploma, or certificate of completion. If you do not settle your account by the deadline, you will not be disenrolled, but at the end of each Summer Session, any unpaid balances will be transferred to collection agencies and will incur additional fines and interest charges.

HOW TO PAY

We expect that you will be able to charge your tuition and fees to MasterCard, Visa, Discover, or American Express when enrolling by the new Web-based SOLAR System or by telephone. Check the Summer Sessions Web site for details.

You may also pay in person by cash, check, or credit card at the Student Accounts Office, or mail your payment to: P.O. Box 619, Stony Brook, NY 11790-0619. Please write your ID number on your check and make it payable to Stony Brook University. Please call the Students Accounts Office at (631) 632-2455 if you have trouble accessing the Automated Telephone System to pay your bill.

Tuition and fee liability is based on the schedule printed on the next page. All charges are subject to change without notice.

LATE FEES

If you enroll in classes for the first time after a session has begun, you are charged a $30.00 late enrollment fee. If you receive permission to add or drop a course after the published deadline, you are charged a $15.00 late fee. If your check is returned by our bank, you are charged a $20.00 fee and you may also incur a $30.00 late fee.

• TUITION AND FEE LIABILITY

If you change your mind about taking a course for which you have enrolled, it is imperative that you drop the course, otherwise you will be liable for payment of all tuition and fees. Stony Brook does not automatically disenroll students for non-payment of tuition and fees or failure to attend classes.

• REFUND POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Because students sometimes prefer that a credit be applied to their account for the following semester, refunds are not automatic.

You must request a refund. Upon receipt of your course cancellation, the effective date of drop or withdrawal will determine your refund, if any. No refunds will be considered for students who have completed more than one-half of a session or term. Approved academic petitions to cancel courses will not automatically result in removal or adjustment of charges. If you wish to receive a refund to which you are entitled, you must request the refund through the Student Accounts Office, 254 Administration Building, Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY 11794-1301; telephone (631) 632-2455, fax (631) 632-1308. If you have charged your payment, an approved refund request will be credited back to your charge card.

You must apply for a refund within one year after the end of the session in which you were enrolled. No refund will be issued for credit balances after that time.

• STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Students themselves—whether new, visiting, returning, or continuing—are responsible for reviewing, understanding, and abiding by the University’s regulations, procedures, requirements, and deadlines as described in all official publications. These include the Undergraduate Bulletin (and supplements), Summer Sessions Catalog, School of Professional Development Bulletin, Graduate Bulletin, Student Handbook, and Fall and Spring Class Schedules. It is the student’s responsibility to maintain a current address on record with the Registrar’s Office at all times.

Although this catalog was prepared on the basis of the best information available at the time, all information (including the calendar, course offerings, and statements on tuition and fees) is subject to change without notice or obligation. All information in this publication supersedes information published in previous Summer Sessions catalogs.

• FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

Federal law regulates the confidentiality of and access to student records maintained by the University (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act). For a more complete description of your rights and responsibilities under this law, please refer to the Undergraduate Bulletin, Fall or Spring Class Schedules, Student Handbook, or visit the Stony Brook Web site at www.stonybrook.edu.

• TIME OPTION PAYMENT PLAN (TOPP)

The Time Option Payment Plan (TOPP) allows you to pay your Summer Sessions tuition and fees on an installment basis. Since the plan is not a loan, there is no interest or finance charges. You pay only a non-refundable application fee of $25.00 per session to defray the program’s administrative expenses. The TOPP work sheet and application form are available on the Summer Sessions Web site. Details of the plan appear on the TOPP application.

To enroll, return the completed application (and the worksheet) with the application fee and your first payment by the enrollment deadline to: P. O. Box 619, Stony Brook, NY 11790-0619. TOPP applications sent without payment or the application fee will not be processed. Make your check payable to Stony Brook University. You have the option of distributing your payment over two to three months, depending on whether you have enrolled in one or both sessions. Stony Brook will mail you monthly statements.

You may also charge the application fee and monthly payment to your credit card. Monthly statements will not be mailed if you elect to pay by credit card.

Please call the Office of Student Accounts at (631) 632-2455 if you have any questions about the Time Option Payment Plan.

• FINANCIAL AID

Financial aid programs available for Summer Sessions:

- Federal Stafford Loan Subsidized
- Federal Stafford Loan Unsubsidized
- Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)
- Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)
- Federal Work Study

• SUMMER ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Only matriculated Stony Brook students can apply for these programs. Visiting students should check with the institution they attend during the academic year. Applicants for Stafford Loans must enroll in Summer Sessions classes for a minimum of six (6) units. Undergraduate Federal Work Study applicants must be enrolled in three (3) units in Session II. Advanced graduate students engaged in full-time research must enroll in the appropriate course.

Because the TAP and the Stafford Loan programs have maximum awards that cannot be exceeded, applicants should check with the Office of Financial Aid and Student Employment to ensure that their eligibility for future semesters will not be affected by a summer award.

• APPLICATION PROCESS

In order to be considered for summer financial aid, you must take the following steps by the stated deadline.

1. Complete and send to the federal processor the 2002-2003 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or Renewal FAFSA, no later than March 1, 2002.
2. Submit to the Financial Aid Office a completed 2002 Stony Brook Summer Request Form, on or before April 1, 2002.
3. TAP applicants: Upon receipt of an "Express TAP Application" from the Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC), which is based on your FAFSA application, you must review the accuracy of its data, add Summer Sessions to the application section, sign it, and return it to HESC in the envelope provided. You will receive your TAP award directly from HESC. It should include your award for Summer 2002.

4. Stafford Loan applicants: You must have already enrolled in your summer classes before Stony Brook can process your Summer Loan Request Form. Your loan information will then be transmitted electronically to HESC. First time borrowers will then receive a Stafford Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN). Upon receipt of your MPN you must complete it, sign it, and return it to HESC for the approval of the loan.

• DEFERMENT OF UNIVERSITY CHARGES BASED ON FINANCIAL AID REFUND POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

In order to have a deferment applied to your account based on your Summer Stafford Loan, you must have followed the application process and have received final approval from HESC. To obtain a deferment file, mail your application forms as early as possible. If your loan has not been approved and properly guaranteed by HESC, you are expected to pay your summer charges within seven (7) days of enrollment and you will be reimbursed when your financial aid funds have been received.

Summer TAP (Tuition Assistance Program) and FWS (Federal Work Study) awards cannot be used to defer payment. Because Summer TAP payments from HESC to the University can occur up to a year after the summer term for which payment was awarded, you are required to pay for your classes within seven (7) days of enrolling. Your Summer TAP award will be reimbursed in full to you when received by HESC, provided you have no other outstanding charges.

HOW TO ENROLL IN CLASSES

The what, when, and where of enrolling in summer classes—whether you are new, visiting, or a continuing Stony Brook student—plus those all-important deadlines.

• SUMMER ENROLLMENT POLICY

Stony Brook has an open enrollment policy during the summer. Graduates of accredited secondary schools or equivalency programs are welcome to enroll in summer undergraduate courses. Graduates of accredited four-year colleges and universities may take either summer graduate or undergraduate courses. All students must meet the published course prerequisites.

Admission to summer classes is for Summer Sessions only. If you wish to continue studying at Stony Brook during the academic year, you must follow Stony Brook's standard application procedures. Please contact one of the offices indicated below.

• CURRENT STONY BROOK STUDENT ENROLLMENT

Web and telephone enrollment for Stony Brook students enrolled in Spring semester classes begins April 22 and in-person registration begins May 14. Visit the Summer Sessions Web site for instructions.

SOLAR SYSTEM

New Web Enrollment System for Summer Session 2002!

Stony Brook University is pleased to announce that for the first time students will be able to enroll in Summer Sessions classes via the Web using our new SOLAR (Student Online Access to Records) System, an integrated registration system that allows students to enroll, add or drop courses, place themselves on waiting lists, view their academic records, pay for their classes (by credit card), and much more. We think you will find the SOLAR System to be much more flexible and convenient than the previous registration and student records system.

The SOLAR System will also greatly improve our management of student records. Stony Brook's programmers and student services staff have been working hard for many months to implement the system. While they have all anticipated any and all problems, we know that with any new process there are bound to be glitches, and we ask you to bear with us this first year.

At press time, the finishing touches were still being put on the SOLAR System, therefore, this catalog does not include details of the new enrollment procedures. Once these procedures have been made final, information will be available on the Summer Sessions Web site sometime in March. Stony Brook students can begin enrolling in summer classes through the SOLAR System on April 22, according to the date and time of their enrollment appointment. Open enrollment for all students, including visiting students, begins on May 14.

All students will receive enrollment appointments—a date and time when they can start enrolling in classes using the SOLAR System. Visiting students must first submit the Summer Sessions application form in order to be eligible to receive an enrollment appointment. Every student will have a personal Web page on the SOLAR System. Once the enrollment appointments have been assigned, an announcement will be posted on the Stony Brook home page at www.stonybrook.edu, along with instructions for viewing students' appointment dates and times on their Web pages. E-mail will be used to notify students to look for this and other announcements on the Web about enrolling in summer classes. For that reason, it is critical that all Summer Sessions students, including visiting students, have an up to date e-mail address on file with Stony Brook at all times and that they make frequent visits to the Stony Brook and Summer Sessions home pages.

• NEW, VISITING, AND RETURNING STUDENT ENROLLMENT

Undergraduate Students

If you are a new, visiting, or returning undergraduate, you may enroll in Summer Sessions classes via the Web, telephone, or in person beginning May 14 when open registration begins. Visit the Summer Sessions Web site for instructions.

The application form for visiting summer undergraduate students should be submitted on the Summer Sessions Web site. Please submit the form at least five (5) days before you wish to enroll in Summer Sessions classes.

College graduates who wish to enroll in either undergraduate or graduate courses must apply through the School for Professional Development. See below.

Graduate Students

If you were not already enrolled as a graduate student at Stony Brook during the Spring 2002 semester or already have a bachelor's degree, but wish to take graduate and/or undergraduate courses as a non-matriculating student, you need to apply to the School of Professional Development (SPD). The non-matriculating graduate student application fee is $15.00. Once you have been admitted as a non-matriculating graduate student, beginning May 14 you may enroll in summer undergraduate or graduate classes on the Web, by telephone, or in person.

To obtain the application and enrollment information, visit SPD's Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/spd. You may submit the application online or download it to submit in person or by mail to:

School of Professional Development
Room N-201, Ward Melville Social and Behavioral Sciences Building
Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY 11794-4310
Telephone: (631) 632-7050
E-mail: spd@stonybrook.edu

You may also pick up the non-matriculating graduate student application from SPD between 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday, Friday until 5:00 p.m. during the academic year, and Friday until 1:00 p.m. during Summer Sessions.

High School Students

If you are a high school student who will complete your junior year in June and your grade point average is 85 or higher, you may take selected introductory (100-level) summer courses as a visiting Summer Sessions student. For information about summer courses open to high school students, contact:

Summer Sessions Office
Stony Brook University
Stony Brook, New York 11794-5370
Telephone: (631) 632-7790
E-mail: summerschool@notes.cc.sunysb.edu

• INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ENROLLMENT

If you are not a citizen or permanent resident of the United States and if your first or native language is not English (or if you have pursued a college-level education in a non-English-speaking country), you must demonstrate proficiency in English before you can enroll in Summer Sessions classes by presenting a TOEFL (English as a Foreign Language) score of at least 550.

To obtain the testing schedule and registration information, write to:

TOEFL
Education Testing Service
CN 5161
Princeton, NJ 08540, USA

According to U.S. regulations, you have to attend the school that issued your visa before you can attend a different school during the summer. You must also hold a current visa status that does not expire while the summer school is in session. You do not need to transfer your F-1 or J-1 visa to Stony Brook in order to attend the Summer Sessions, but an approved school transfer is required if you wish to continue studying at Stony Brook beyond the summer. For further information, contact the International Services Office in the Graduate School, 2401 Computer Sciences Building. Telephone (631) 632-INTL; or visit on the Web at www.grad.stonybrook.edu.

Non-immigrant international students are required to pay a mandatory health insurance fee unless they can provide proof of comparable health insurance. For further information about this fee, call the Student Health Insurance Office at (631) 632-6054.

• IMPORTANT REMINDER ABOUT PAYMENT

You are required to pay all fees, including housing fees, within seven (7) days of when you enroll in summer classes. To spread out the payment, you may use the Time Option Payment Plan (TOPP). If you have a tuition waiver, fellowship, grant, or approved deferment you need to have all necessary forms completed and approved before you may enroll in summer classes. Details about payment are on the Summer Sessions Web site.

If you change your mind about taking a course in which you have enrolled, it is imperative that you officially drop the course (see the following section titled Dropping Courses), otherwise you will be liable for payment of all tuition and fees. Stony Brook will not automatically disenroll you if you fail to attend classes.

• ENROLLMENT CHANGES

Please visit the Summer Sessions Web site at www.stonybrook.edu/summer to find out how to add a course or cancel your enrollment. Refer to the Summer Academic Calendar on the inside back cover or the box in this section to see the deadlines for making enrollment changes.

• DROPPING COURSES

If you change your mind about your courses, you must officially drop them yourself. Informing the instructor, not attending the class, and/or not paying the tuition and fees will NOT cancel your enrollment and it will NOT cancel your financial obligation. Deadlines are listed in this section of the catalog and in the Summer Academic Calendar inside the back cover. You do not need permission to drop courses within the published deadlines. You may drop classes via the Web, telephone, or in person, but you must do so within the deadlines, not just stop attending class. The Summer Sessions Office does not process enrollment changes or cancellations.

You may drop courses without a record being kept and without financial liability through the first five (5) days of the session. If you drop courses between the sixth day of the session and through the fifth Friday of each session, you will receive a grade of "W" (Withdrawal). After the fifth Friday of each session, you may not withdraw from summer courses.

It is also important that you drop the course(s) within the published deadlines to avoid being liable for tuition and fees, to be able to enroll in classes another semester, and to receive a transcript. The schedule for tuition refunds and liability appears in the preceding Money Matters section of this catalog and on the Summer Sessions Web site. Both also provide information about how to apply for refunds. The amount of refund, if any, is based on your official withdrawal date. Stony Brook issues no refunds after the second week of summer classes or more than one year after the end of the session in which you were enrolled.

DEADLINES FOR ENROLLMENT CHANGES

	Session I	Session II	Extended Session
Adding or dropping courses (no W assigned or tuition liability)	June 3	July 16	June 3
Withdrawing from courses (W assigned and tuition liability)	July 2	August 14	July 2

• COURSES ON DIFFERENT SCHEDULES

You may enroll in a late-starting class through the last weekday preceding the starting date for that course. Courses on varying schedules may also have different drop deadlines. Contact the Summer Sessions Office or Registrar's Office.

• MAXIMUM CREDIT LOAD

Undergraduate students may enroll in a maximum of nine (9) units per session. Entering or continuing Stony Brook undergraduates who wish to enroll in more than nine units in either session must obtain permission from the appropriate academic standing committee. Visiting undergraduate students may petition the Director of Summer Sessions to enroll in more than nine units and should submit a letter from the college or university they attend during the academic year giving them permission to take more than nine units per session.

Graduate students may enroll for a maximum of nine units per six-week session.

• STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Students themselves—whether new, visiting, returning, or continuing—are responsible for reviewing, understanding, and abiding by the University's regulations, procedures, requirements, and deadlines as described in all official publications. These include the Undergraduate Bulletin (and supplements), Summer Sessions Catalog, Graduate Bulletin, School of Professional Development Bulletin, Student Handbook, and Fall and Spring class schedules.

It is also the student's responsibility to maintain a current address on record with the Registrar's Office at all times.

Although this catalog was prepared on the basis of the best information available at the time, all information (including the calendar, course offerings, and statements on tuition and fees) is subject to change without notice or obligation. All information in this publication supersedes information published in previous Summer Sessions catalogs.

• AUDITING COURSES

Because space is often limited in Summer Sessions classes, only matriculated Stony Brook students and senior citizens may audit summer courses. Both must have permission of the instructor and the director of Summer Sessions or be a member of the Senior Citizen Auditing Program (see below). Stony Brook does not allow auditing of summer foreign language, science, laboratory, studio, physical education, or other "hands-on" courses, although individual instructors may make occasional exceptions. Audit permission forms are available from the Summer Sessions Office.

The University does not keep a record of courses audited nor does it grant any credit for audited courses. Auditors are expected to refrain from participating in class discussions and may not turn in or ask for grading of homework, term papers, or examinations. Students may change their status in a summer course from auditor to enrolled student during the first week of classes in each session.

Senior Citizen Auditing

Adults who are 60 years of age or older may audit most New York State-funded, credit-bearing courses offered at Stony Brook upon payment of a $10.00 auditing fee, provided space is available in the classroom and the instructor permits auditors. The exceptions to this policy include foreign language, laboratory, studio art, physical education, and instrumental music courses, as well as courses offered in self-supporting, non-credit programs sponsored by the School of Professional Development, Crafts Center, Wellness Center, Museum of Long Island Natural Sciences, and Division of Physical Education and Athletics, among others.

Senior citizens pay a $10.00 auditing fee and enroll as auditors on the third day of classes of each session, between 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. in Room N-215 of the Ward Melville Social and Behavioral Sciences Building. Catalogs and class schedules will be available at that time. Please remember that auditors must refrain from participating in class discussions and may not turn in or ask for grading of homework, term papers, or examinations. For further information, call (631) 632-9493.

• STUDENTS DISMISSED FROM STONY BROOK

Students who were dismissed from Stony Brook at the end of the spring semester but have already enrolled in Session I classes will be allowed to take those classes. Any registration for Session II and Fall semester classes will, however, be canceled.

DEFINITIONS

Don't know what DEC means or whether or not you are considered a visiting student? We explain these terms and others in this section.

Auditing—attending a class for informational purposes only. No academic credit. Permission of instructor required.

Baccalaureate degree—a bachelor of arts or sciences degree from a four-year college or university.

Class Number—the number the student uses to enroll in a class. Differs from the department designator (see below). Each lecture, recitation, and/or laboratory section has its own class number.

Closed course—a class that is closed to further enrollment because the maximum number of students is enrolled in it.

Continuing student—a student who has been formally admitted to Stony Brook for the academic year as a matriculated or non-matriculated student and who is continuing, rather than beginning, study at Stony Brook as an admitted student.

Crosslisted course—one course offered jointly by more than one department, simply having different department designators and possibly different numbers. Students may enroll under either designator and number. The course description is shown under the department sponsoring the course.

DEC (Diversified Education Curriculum)—general education requirements that Stony Brook undergraduate students enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Engineering and Applied Sciences, and Marine Sciences Research Center must complete in order to graduate. Visiting students may ignore the DEC code designators unless they plan to apply for admission to Stony Brook for the fall or spring semester.

Department designators—the three letters (followed by the course number) that precede a course title. They identify the department that sponsors the course. Courses are identified by the department designator, course number, and section number. Example: AFS (department designator), 225 (course number), 01 (section number).

Dropping a course—dropping one or more course(s) in a summer term, but not reducing the course load to zero units. The course is expunged from the student's academic record. Differs from withdrawing from all courses in a given term.

Extra-fee course—certain courses, such as studio art courses, have mandatory extra fees that cover the cost of supplies for the course.

Grade reports—a report showing the final grades for all courses that a student has taken in each summer session. Differs from a transcript, which is an official academic record sent only to another institution.

Lab course—a course that meets for more official hours per unit than standard lecture courses to allow for actual laboratory work in the case of engineering, science, mathematics, and foreign language courses, or for in-class work in art, film, theatre, or other such courses.

Late enrollment—enrolling for one or more courses after the session has begun. Late fee required.

Liability schedule—refers to the percentage of payment that a student is responsible for when dropping one or more course(s) after the end of the published add/drop period.

Matriculation—admission to an undergraduate or graduate degree program at Stony Brook. Enrollment in Summer Sessions does not constitute admission to Stony Brook for the academic year. See Open Enrollment below.

Non-matriculating graduate student—a student who has completed a baccalaureate degree and who is taking graduate or undergraduate courses without having been admitted into an individual degree program.

Open enrollment (Summer Sessions only)—students may attend Summer Sessions classes without being formally admitted to the University. Students who hope to continue studying at Stony Brook during the academic year must follow the standard admissions procedures for undergraduate and graduate students.

Prerequisite—requirement that the student must have met before taking the course. Visiting students may use comparable courses from other institutions to satisfy this requirement. A student who enrolls for a course without having met the prerequisite may be disenrolled.

Recitation—a required part of a course, in addition to the class lectures, that usually involves weekly small group discussion or quizzes for the purpose of reviewing information covered in the lectures. Recitations are usually not optional.

Session—equivalent to one semester. Summer Sessions consists of two consecutive six-week sessions and one eight-week session.

Transcript—an official record of grades earned at Stony Brook that is mailed directly to another college or university.

Visiting student—a student who has not yet completed a bachelor's degree and has been allowed to enroll in undergraduate courses at Stony Brook during Summer Sessions, but who has not been formally admitted to the University as an undergraduate student. Also see Non-matriculating graduate student.

Withdrawing from one or more courses—different from dropping a course. Students may withdraw from one or more courses from the end of the add/drop period through the end of the fifth week of classes in each session. They will receive a "W" on their academic record.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

All about the grading system, summer graduation deadlines, transferring units, and where to find complete information on academic regulations and student responsibilities.

• ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

For complete information on Stony Brook's academic policies and procedures, undergraduate students should refer to the 2001-2003 Undergraduate Bulletin (www.stonybrook.edu/ugbulletin). Graduate students admitted to a departmental program should refer to the 2000-2002 Graduate Bulletin (www.grad.sunysb.edu/bulletin.htm). Students admitted to the School of Professional Development (SPD) should refer to the most recent SPD Bulletin (www.stonybrook.edu/spd). Policies and regulations detailed in these bulletins apply to all students, including visiting summer students.

Information about the academic advising services available to Summer Sessions students appears in the following section of this catalog under Student Services and Resources. It is also available on the Summer Sessions Web site.

• GRADING SYSTEM

Your academic performance is expressed in letter grades, as follows: A (superior), A-, B+, B (good), B-, C+, C (satisfactory), C-, D+, D (minimum passing, undergraduate courses only), F (failure), I (incomplete, a temporary grade indicating that the work of the course has not been completed because of circumstances beyond your control), NC (no credit), NR (no record), P (pass), Q (academic dishonesty), S (satisfactory), U (unsatisfactory). W indicates that you withdrew from a course.

• PASS/NO CREDIT OPTION

Stony Brook students should refer to the Undergraduate Bulletin for information about and restrictions governing the P/NC option. The P/NC option is not available to graduate students.

Visiting undergraduate students should obtain the approval of the institution they attend during the academic year before enrolling for a course as P/NC. Some institutions have their own restrictions on P/NC courses.

• Incompletes

If an instructor agrees to assign an incomplete in a course, the instructor determines the date by which you must complete the work; however, the date may not be later than October 30. If the work has not been satisfactorily completed by then, the grade of I will automatically be changed to I/F and is calculated as a failing grade.

• No Record

Grades of No Record (NR) which have not been replaced by a final grade or by a W by the end of the ninth week of the fall semester (for spring and summer NR grades) will be converted to one of the following grades: N/F for letter-graded courses, N/U for courses graded A-C/U or S/U, or N/C for courses taken under the Pass/No Credit option. The grade of N/F will be treated as a failure for the purpose of academic standing and will be averaged as an F when the student's grade point average is computed.

• GRADE REPORTS

You may access your grades on the SOLAR (Student Online Access to Records) System. The Registrar's Office will also mail grade reports to all Summer Sessions students at the conclusion of Session II. If you need a transcript mailed to your home institution, see below.

• TRANSCRIPTS

To have an official academic transcript sent to another institution, submit a request to the Registrar's Office either in person, by mail, or by fax at least two weeks before the transcript is needed. Please remember that the University will not issue a transcript if you have any outstanding charges. The transcript charge is $5.00 per copy. The Registrar's fax number is (631) 632-9318. The mailing address is: Registrar's Office, Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY 11794-1101.

• TRANSFERRING UNITS

Stony Brook Students

Before enrolling in summer courses at other institutions, you need prior approval from Stony Brook to ensure that the units will be transferable to Stony Brook. The necessary forms are available from the Transfer Office, 134 Administration Building, Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, NY 11794-1909.

Prior approval forms are not required for courses taken at the following schools because equivalency course lists are available in the Transfer Office: College of Staten Island, F.I.T. (liberal arts courses), Queens College, SUNY Albany, SUNY Farmingdale, and the community colleges of Kingsborough, Nassau, Queensborough, Rockland, Suffolk, and Westchester. Please check with the Transfer Office to be sure any courses you plan to take at another institution have been evaluated by Stony Brook.

If you wish to take courses elsewhere toward the DEC or major requirements, certain limitations apply. Check with an advisor in the appropriate advising office.

After you have completed approved summer study at another institution, have a transcript from that institution sent to:

Office of Undergraduate Admissions
Stony Brook University
Stony Brook, NY 11794-1901

Visiting Summer Students

If you attend another institution during the academic year and plan to study at Stony Brook during Summer Sessions, be sure to have your course selections approved for transfer credit by that institution, even if it is another SUNY school.

• AUGUST GRADUATION

To become a candidate for August graduation, undergraduate and School of Professional Development (SPD) students may file applications until July 16. SPD candidates file at the School of Professional Development. Undergraduate students submit their applications to the Registrar's Office.

Undergraduate students who previously applied to graduate do not have to file a new application if their graduation is delayed until summer; they need only mail a written request for the new date to the Registrar's Office by July 16. However, students in the MA/LS, MPS, or MAT degree programs whose graduation has been delayed must reapply to SPD by July 16.

• ADDITIONAL ACADEMIC INFORMATION

All Stony Brook academic regulations and student responsibilities apply to visiting Summer Sessions students as well as to those who attend Stony Brook during the academic year.

The academic regulations, terms, course listings, and other information contained in the Summer Sessions catalog are subject to the restrictions of the timetable and date of publication of the catalog. The University reserves the right to change academic regulations or to cancel any course for whatever reason it may deem appropriate. Detailed information on courses of study, academic regulations, and student responsibilities is available in the current Undergraduate Bulletin, (www.stonybrook.edu/ugbulletin), the SPD Bulletin, (www.stonybrook.edu/spd), the Graduate Bulletin (www.grad.sunysb.edu/bulletin.htm), and their associated supplements and updates.

The University bulletins also contain complete information regarding student educational records, financial aid, university attendance policy, academic honesty, and other topics. All bulletins and their supplements are available in the Reference Section of the Melville Library.

• STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Students themselves—whether new, visiting, returning, or continuing—are responsible for reviewing, understanding, and abiding by the University's regulations, procedures, requirements, and deadlines as described in all official publications. These include the Undergraduate Bulletin (and supplements), Summer Sessions Catalog, Graduate Bulletin, School of Professional Development Bulletin, Student Handbook, and Fall and Spring class schedules. It is also the student's responsibility to maintain a current address on record with the Registrar's Office at all times.

Although this catalog was prepared based on the information available at the time of publication, (including the calendar, course offerings, and statements on tuition and fees), it is subject to change without notice or obligation. This publication supersedes previous Summer Sessions catalogs.

Situated between Manhattan and Montauk, Stony Brook offers the best of both worlds. Our central location provides Summer Sessions students with access to a variety of shopping areas, historical landmarks, beautiful parks and beaches, and Broadway-quality entertainment as well as the renowned Summer Film Festival at the Staller Center on campus.

All accommodations include beds, desks, dressers, telephones, cable TV, and Ethernet access. You must provide linens and study lamps. Many Voices, Many Visions, One University

In the spirit of our ongoing community initiative, we continue to promote the ideals expressed in our 1999-2000 Year of Community Statement.

As members of Stony Brook University, we acknowledge that the primary purpose of this community is education, including academic achievement, social development, and personal growth.

In committing ourselves to study and work at Stony Brook, we agree to promote equality, civility, caring, responsibility, accountability, and respect. We also recognize the importance of understanding and appreciating our differences and similarities.

As members of a respectful community, we will not encroach on the rights of others, either as individuals or as groups. We recognize that freedom of expression and opinion entails an obligation to listen to and understand the beliefs and opinions of others, and to treat others fairly.

We strive to be a responsible community. We are accountable individually for our personal behavior and development, and collectively for the welfare of the community itself.

We encourage all Stony Brook community members to celebrate and express pride in our community's academic, athletic, and social accomplishments, and to involve themselves in the surrounding local communities.

In affirming this statement, we commit ourselves to becoming dedicated, active, and full members of Stony Brook University in each role we assume.
