Despommier of Columbia University will be presenting on the possible future of farming within high-rise buildings of urban centers.

Friday, 2/19

Bowling at the East Hampton Lanes, Bus departs 6 p.m., Lot A. A popular event in past semesters, Bowling Night is back! If you're interested, sign up in the Wellness Center.

Warm Up with Hot Chocolate, 7 p.m., LL Sagaponack. Take some time to get cozy and take the "chill" out of your day with a nice cup of Hot Chocolate. Invite your friends!

Open Poetry Night, 6 p.m., Library. From Prof. Stephanie Wade: "We are hosting an Open Mic Poetry Night in honor of Black History Month. All are welcome to attend and participate. We invite writers with original work as well as those who would like to share work by their favorite published writers. Guests are welcome! Refreshments will be served."

Saturday, 2/20

Pizza for All, 7 p.m., LL Mattituck. Interested in cooking your own pizza? Then Mattituck is the place to be, where the Residence Life Weekend Planners will teach you how to make a homemade pizza!

Did You Know?

4 R's Weekly Column is attached to this email!

FOR THE LOVE OF HORSES! Amaryllis Equine Rescue Center in Sagaponack needs volunteers to help around the stable. If you are interested in working with horses rescued from the slaughter houses and being given a second chance at life, please contact Deanna Lally or Heather Macadam. The group is hoping to make its first sojourn there this week! Contact: hmacadam@notes.sunysb.edu.

The Writing and Study Center, located on the mezzanine of the New Library, remains open. The Center offers support for writing projects and many academic subjects. A link to its online schedule with current hours is <http://www.rich37.com/stonybrook/>.
