

SBU School of Journalism Presents

The “My Life As...” Series

Bobby Ghosh- Back from Baghdad
“My Life as TIME World Editor”

Thursday, October 25th
8:00pm SAC Auditorium

Aparisim "Bobby" Ghosh is Time magazine's new World editor, the first non-American to hold that position. He was until recently Time's bureau chief in Baghdad, where he spent 4½ years covering the Iraq war and its aftermath.

Ghosh, has been with Time since 1998, and in addition to reporting from Baghdad, he has assigned to Hong Kong and London. He now works from Time's New York City headquarters. Some of his most notable journalism has been in conflict zones such as Iraq, Palestine and Kashmir.

Ghosh began his career in India with the Deccan Chronicle in his hometown of Visakhapatnam.

For more information, contact the School of Journalism at 631.632.7403 or journalism@stonybrook.edu