Happy PayDay Receives UUP Statewide Award

Besides entering into our 7th year of publication, your Happy PayDay team of Editors and Co-editors,

Dawn Svoboda-Pappas, Artie Shertzer, Corinne Burns, Lisa Willis and myself (Charlie McAteer) recently received the

"First Award for Best Electronic Publication" at the UUP Delegate Assembly in Albany. It was presented by UUP

Director of Communications, Denyce Duncan Lacy, and UUP Statewide President Phillip Smith. Many thanks to the HPD Team that keeps our members informed of what's going on within UUP, and offering many discounts and other offers open to you and your families. Congratulations to the UUP Chapter Newsletter Editors of InSight for also receiving three awards as well. We also want to thank all the contributors over the past years who have offered up suggestions and provided articles for both Happy PayDay and InSight. Great Job Everyone!

NEA Retirement Planning Software Available

The National Educational Association which UUP belongs to is offering low-cost retirement planning software to

UUP members. The software "RetirementWorks II" is a secure, easy to use web-based program that offers comprehensive retirement advice based on a person's unique financial situation and goals. It provides a detailed, personalized assessment of their financial picture, whether nearing retirement or already retired. It is easy to use in plain English, and based on the information you provide, RetirementWorks II makes clear, understandable recommendations, with detailed explanations for retirement. The price is $49.50 per year, and annual renewals are only $44.50. There is no risk as it comes with a full refund within 30 days of purchase if not satisfied. Go to <http://bit.ly/w0dRFJ> for more details.

RSVP No later than three days prior to an event for lunch orders.
