Dear Committee Members,

This is a reminder that our next meeting of the University Senate Library Services Meeting will take place this coming Thursday at the usual time and place, 10 am, Rm. 126, Psych. B. The agenda will include a discussion of the journal situation and a letter submitted to us by Aimee de Chambeau on behalf the library staff. I realize that this is a very busy time of year, but hope that as many of you as can make it will attend. I have already received and responded to emails from some who cannot be there. I have attached an old copy of minutes from the October meeting, which is a duplicate of the copy that I sent to you in October. In the next email I will distribute to you the letter from Aimee de Chambeau. Steve Koch gave us a pointer to a very interesting and informative article by Robert Darnton, the Director of the Harvard Library. I highly recommend this to you. It shows that the situation that we face here at Stony Brook is actually quite typical of a large number of universities.

Best,

Bob
