RE: Student Activity Fee Referendum Case

Location: SAC 309

Time: 12:00 - 1:00 PM

The public is invited to attend the USG Supreme Court Hearing in the case against the Student Activity Fee Referendum. The petitioners are President Matt Graham and Executive Vice-President Alexander Dimitriyadi, advocating for themselves, and the respondents in the case will be the USG Elections Board, an independent agency of the USG, with Moiz Khan advocating on their behalf.

These hearings don't usually go longer than an hour, and no decision will be made tomorrow. Attached are the briefings from the petitioners and respondents for your review. There will be no opportunity for questions or input from the gallery during the hearing, but I will be taking questions after the hearing, and I'm sure others will be willing to talk about the case as well.
