

Sources of National Statistics

This document is a country index to the eight statistical compilations listed on the following page. The countries are in alphabetical order, and the letter(s) following each country refer(s) to the compilation in which statistical data on that country may be found. In addition, if the Library owns a statistical compilation specific to a country, that compilation will be noted below the country's name. Finally, the statistical compilations of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) are listed below the member countries of that organization.
