Thank you for volunteering to participate in the 50 Forward focus groups. The response was excellent: we had over twice as many volunteers as we have space in the groups. We selected members of the groups to ensure diversity between east and west campus, faculty and staff, and participation from a wide range of departments.

Your efforts show that you have confidence in the future of Stony Brook University. We hope we can count on you in the future if and when we need more input from our community. Again, thank you for your time.
