Subject Salute to Stony Brook - You are invited

To: The Campus Community
From: Shirley Strum Kenny
Date: 8/27/01

On Tuesday, September 11, Stony Brook's Academic Mall will be transformed into a gala street fair as we pull out all the stops and celebrate our many stunning achievements of the past year. Please join me for the party!

Our celebration will include live music and dancing - from Dixieland to salsa to belly dancing to ballroom - plus contests and prizes, magic and fireworks. The street fair will happen rain or shine, from 4:30 p.m. until dusk. Stony Brook's recent admission to the Association of American Universities certainly gives us a great reason to celebrate, but Salute to Stony Brook is really a salute to all of you - students, faculty, and staff - who have helped make Stony Brook the dynamic institution it is today.

Shuttle buses will run from East Campus to West. For a complete list of the day's activities, be sure to visit our Web site at <http://www.stonybrook.edu/salute> . I look forward to seeing you all there.
