

To All Faculty & Staff

Colleagues,

The Provost's Lecture Series continues with a special event in conjunction with the conference "How Class Works," sponsored by the Center for Study of Working Class Life

We are delighted to welcome back to campus Susie Orbach, a graduate of the School of Social Welfare, and the recipient of an Honorary Doctorate of Letters from Stony Brook.

Dr. Orbach is a psychotherapist and international expert on eating problems and body image. She is the author of Fat is a Feminist Issue and On Eating, and is co-founder of The Women's Therapy Center (London), The Women's Therapy Center Institute (New York City), and Psychotherapists for Social Justice. Currently, a Visiting Professor at the London School of Economics, Dr. Orbach received a PhD from University College London.

She will be speaking on the topic, "Obesity and the Body Politic, Thursday, June 8, 2006, at 7:30 in the Student Activities Center Auditorium.

Please pass along this information to any students or community members you feel may be interested in attending.

- Robert McGrath, Provost & Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs