VLOGGING - DO YOU WANT TO KNOW MORE?: (Submitted by William Glenn)

Darren Chase had some interesting links in his presentation on video blogging on April 19, and William asked him to send us a copy. Here's his power point for people who were trying to write down all the links: <http://ms.cc.sunysb.edu/~dachase/vlogintro.htm>

Take a look of the power point If you missed the presentation but are curious to see a little of it.

Darren also said: "Thanks to you and your colleagues for the warm reception (and delicious lunch)--I really enjoyed myself. It's great to know there are energetic, smart librarians like you and your colleagues just across campus."
