Stony Brook Concerts Revival Will Feature Best Coast

EMBARGOED FOR RELEASE ON MONDAY NOVEMBER 15TH

STONY BROOK, NY – On Wednesday, November 17th, at 8:30 pm in SAC Ballroom A, the Stony Brook Undergraduate Student Government (USG) will be welcoming Best Coast as the first band to play under the banner of the newly revived Stony Brook Concerts Series.

Stony Brook Concerts is the very same concert series that brought The Grateful Dead, Jefferson Airplane, and Blue Oyster Cult before they became household names. Stony Brook Concerts was also responsible for bringing such diverse and talented acts as Jimi Hendrix, Pink Floyd, The Ramones, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Frank Zappa, U2, Jerry Garcia, Bob Dylan, among many, many others. The entire list of past Stony Brook Concerts performers can be found at <http://sbusg.org/about/history/concerts/>.

The USG will also be handing out a limited number of free Stony Brook Concerts t-shirts and posters (see attached) to attendees. Everyone is encouraged to RSVP on Facebook for the event:

The show will be free for all community members, including students, faculty, staff and alumni. Alumni are excited about the event because the series has been considered a relic of the past. USG hopes to restore this tradition amongst others throughout the year. These traditions foster community on campus and create a much needed connection and between current students and alumni.

About the Undergraduate Student Government (USG): We represent and serve more than 16,000 undergraduate students at SUNY Stony Brook University. The USG is responsible for appropriating student activity fees to approximately 160 funded clubs and organizations in order to create a sense of community on campus and to enhance student life. For more than 50 years, we have been an organizing force for student power on campus through activism and representation throughout important decision-making bodies at the University.
